PNGDF SOLDIER WINS KINA ESILOAN WINIM WHEELS PROMOTION VEHICLE

A soldier with the Papua New Guinea Defence Force based at the Igam Barracks in Lae is the lucky winner of the Kina Bank Esiloan 'Winim Wheels' promotion which ran from April to June this year.

Kina Bank today announced the winner during the handover ceremony of the brand new L200 Ute to Corporal Downen Piwen and his family at the Boroko Motors Office in Lae.

Corporate Piwen when thanking Kina Bank, said: "I have taken out a couple of loans with Kina EsiLoans, and I never dreamt that my name will be picked up to win the vehicle. I am giving this vehicle to my wife, a small business entrepreneur who will use the vehicle to help transport her goods to the various market locations in Lae."

Kina Bank Executive General Manager, Danny Robinson said: "Kina's vision is to help our customers and the communities prosper, underpinned by progressive accessible financial service. We partner with our customers through such promotions as Esiloan 'Winim Wheels' to unlock opportunity and provide them with the financial independence to build the life they choose for themselves and their families."

Kina is a diversified financial services provider in Papua New Guinea, offering customers end-to-end financial solutions, from savings accounts to small business loans, investments to mortgages, stockbroking and financial advice, investment management and fund administration.
